Equinor educates skilled workers in the following disciplines:

Upper secondary level 1 (Vg1)
- Technical and industrial production
- Specialisation in general studies
- Technical and industrial production
- Specialisation in general studies with industrial design
- Technical and industrial production
- Electrical
- Electrical
- Technical and industrial production
- Electrical
- Service and transport
- Technical and industrial production
- Restaurant and food processing

Upper secondary level 2 (Vg2)
- Chemical processing
- Laboratory
- Industrial technology
- Automation
- Electrical energy
- Computers and electronics
- Sales, service and security
- Transport and logistics
- Cookery and waiting

Upper secondary level 3 (Vg3)
- Chemical processing
- Laboratory discipline
- Industrial machinery mechanic
- Crane and lift equipment operator
- Welding
- Automation*
- Electrical engineer
- Power supply operation
- Telecom worker*
- Office and administration
- Logistics
- Cookery

Educational structure:
- Technical and industrial production
- Specialisation in general studies
- Technical and industrial production
- Specialisation in general studies with industrial design
- Technical and industrial production
- Electrical
- Electrical
- Technical and industrial production
- Electrical
- Service and transport
- Technical and industrial production
- Restaurant and food processing

= schooling
= apprenticeship (*1.5 years and  2.5 years)

www.equinor.com/apprentices